After a public hearing held on:

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

THE BOARD OF APPEALS VOTED:

To grant a Special Permit to alter a non-conforming structure to allow the reconstruction of the second story over the rear porch to a greater height within the existing footprint of the dwelling.

The Board of Appeals finds: The modest increase in height of a second story renovation is reasonably necessary for the function of the interior space while the exterior height increase is close to inconsequential. Its proximity to an abutting common driveway is without impact. There is no public purpose served by withholding approval.

The vote of the Zoning Board of Appeals was as follows:
